Press Release

The new Marlon Dining Group receives Iconic Award 2017

The new Marlon Dining Chair and Marlon Dining Table receive the Iconic Award Interior Innovation 2017 in the category 'Winner'!

The Marlon Dining Chair and Dining Table systematically continue the distinctive design elements of the Marlon Collection: A wide and inviting back rest, and a generously sized upholstered seat, which allow for very comfortable seating positions at the table. The octagonal legs of the chair and table add to their distinctiveness.

Exhibition of the Price Winners at the Kölnische Kunstverein

The jury has selected the best awardees of the Iconic Award to present their pieces at the Kölnische Kunstverein in Cologne during the imm trade show. The Marlon Dining Chair and Table will be part of it!

The Marlon Collection is designed by the Munich-based designer Alexander Rehn.

About Axel Veit

Axel Veit is AXEL VEIT

For over 20 years the design, production, and distribution of high end furniture is his great passion.

At the renowned German furniture brands Classicon and Garpa he was in charge of product development, marketing and sales as executive vice president. He started his self-employment about 10 years ago with the exclusive distribution of such high end American home furnishings brands as William Haines Designs, Giati Designs, Dunbar and Sutherland.

The idea of developing his own collection has been ripening in him for quite some years. The crucial kick came with the meeting of the young designer Alexander Rehn at the Salone Satellite in 2013.
